Camilia Valenica
Arianna Jaimes
Javier Aguilera
Timmy Akuoku

Chapter 1: American Government

1.According to Aristotle, how does he define the term ‘’aristocracy’?

A) Rule by the rich
B) Rule by the most capable in society
C) Rule by the most experienced
D) Rule by the power-hungry few

2. According to Aristotle, what is the undesirable outcome of rule by many in society?

A) Kingship
B) Tyranny
C) Polity
D) Democracy

3. According to Locke and Jefferson, what is the right of the people if the government violates the contract?

A) to change the government
B) Refuse to obey its law
C) To revolt
D) all of the above

4. Which of these is not a component of a democracy

A) accountability to the public
B) election of representatives
C) equal opportunity
D) only certain bloodlines have power

5.Most republics throughout the world function as

A) constitutional democracy
B) constitutional oligarchy

C) constitutional hierarchy
D) constitutional theocracy

6. What is the primary distinction between socialist nations and capitalist nations is?
A) No economy involved.
B) voting
C) government officials
D) education

7. What did John Locke believe in?
A) that all humans were born free
B) the theory of the divine right of kings
C) the basis of moral law
D) not having rights

8.Which one of these countries has a communist government?
A) North Korea
B) US
C) Mexico
D) romaine

9.What is pluralism?
A) The notion of groups having a profound impact on the political system
B) Ruled by the people.
C) supreme power held by the power.
D) A system made for laws.

10. What's a republic?
A) The notion of groups having a profound impact on the political system
B) Ruled by the people.
C) supreme power held by the power.
D) A system made for laws.

11. What is democracy?
A) The notion of groups having a profound impact on the political system

B) Ruled by the people.
C) supreme power held by the power.
D) A system made for laws.

12. What is a constitution?

A) The notion of groups having a profound impact on the political system
B) Ruled by the people.
C) supreme power held by the power.
D) A system made for laws.